

Fine Wines by Liquor Select E-newsletter June 2011

Summertime and the living is easy; fish are jumping and the cotton is high. Ok, maybe its not quite that good, but summer is definitely here and we are loving it! First off, thank you to everyone who came out to this year's Spring Fling and helped make it a smashing success. With so many tasty beverages available to try, I hope everyone found something new to love. For those who missed out, the Top 10 Sellers from the Fling are listed below. Also in this issue, you will find lots of new wines to tempt you, again with several great values from Spain. As well, we are having a bit of a beer sale this weekend, and I should also mentioned that a couple of our favourite Aussie reds are back – Mr Blacks Concoction GSM ($25.99) and Morse Code Shiraz ($14.99). Enjoy!

For the Collector

Rudd Crossroads Cabernet Sauvignon 2007 $109.99

Robert Parker 95+points

"The 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon Crossroads performed much better this year than it did last year. A blend of 84% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Petit Verdot, Merlot, and Cabernet Franc, it is still unevolved with a primary character, but it does reveal attractive blueberry and cassis fruit interwoven with notions of incense, camphor, and licorice. As the wine sits in the glass, a graphite scent also emerges. Full-bodied with ripe tannin, but only hinting at its ultimate potential, this 2007 should be forgotten for 5-6 years, and enjoyed over the following 20-25 years"

Act Fast

If you are a lover of Penfolds St Henri Shiraz (and who isn't?), you'll have to act fast. The 2007 vintage has arrived, and while it is still at $59.99/btl, the wholesale price of it is scheduled to go through the roof at the end of the month (Bin 707 is also affected). I have a bit in the store and can probably get more before the change, but don't wait, as it won't ever be $59.99 again!

Wedding Wines

...like Bride & Groom go hand in hand. Do you have a wedding coming up? Already have 4 blenders? Why not sign up for our wedding wine registry, a great way to build your cellar, stock up on favourites or try new wines.
